

Free Land was the Cry!

Visit Homestead National Monument of America

A National Park Service site dedicated to America's epic Homesteading story.

Take Hwy 77 to Beatrice, west on Hwy 136, right turn on Hwy 4

The Heritage Center, Education Center, tallgrass prairie and Freeman School will all be open from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. from July 17 to July 24!

Family fun, interactive exhibits, viewable museum collection, hiking, picnic tables, America's National Homesteading Museum, children's activities, films, bookstore, daily ranger activities: ALL FREE!

Heritage Center services

- Written transcripts of the audio listening handsets in the exhibit area
- Audio description and open captioning of the award -winning film "Land of Dreams"
- Audio description of all indoor and outdoor exhibits
- Elevator to the lower level exhibit area
- Ramps into the building
- Wheelchairs available

Homestead National Monument of America

8523 W. State Hwy 4 ~ Beatrice, NE 68310
402-223-3514 ~ www.nps.gov/home

A Special Olympian Welcome Native American Experience

Homestead National Monument of America

July 17, 2010

6 to 9 p.m.

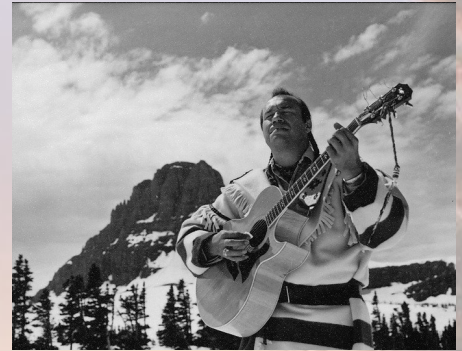

Education Center

Free

Kevin Locke

Kevin Locke is known throughout the world as a vision-ary Hoop Dancer. He works very hard to make sure his cultural heritage survives and prospers.

Jack Gladstone

Jack Gladstone is a Native "Poetsinger" and lecturer from the Blackfeet Indian Nation of Montana. As a cultural bridge builder he delivers programs on America Indian myth, legend, and history.

Many Moccasins Dance Troupe

This dance troupe is an emerging Native American dance company based in Winnebago, NE. Founded in 2001, the dancers and singers range in age from toddler to elder.

Sponsors

Norris Public Power
Nebraska Arts Council
Pinnacle Bank

Security First Bank
Walmart
New Victorian Inn